

Ardrishaig Community Council Meeting (Gala day sub committee) 2nd August 2023

Peresent Paula Cameron, Jessica MacMullen , Ann Duff, Margaret McCulloch, gillian Hogarth and Fiona Hoad

Topics discussed

Marshals & first Aid. 20 volunteers for general marshalls so far.
Lix has emailed volunteers from the Community garden asking for help for the night before and on the day.
HiViz jackets have been ordered by the Crinan Canal.
A separate meeting will be set up to organise Stewards and First Aiders and the Defib has been located at McColls Ardrishaig.
First Aid kits have already been purchased.

Notes/actions/ activities

Midton Acrylic have designed medals. There are 20 medals to be given out for the Tug of War, games for the kids and best poster competition.

All charity stalls need a table and gazebos to be provided. Ed Laughton has offered to check the gazebos and volunteered to set some up thin the morning. The MS centre have also offered the use of their gazebos.

Waverely model will be attending. He can be placed with the old cars and bikes.

Beat the goalie and bottle stall to be run by Donald Bowness.

Ice cream van not to be charged stall fees. He will give a donation

Karina (on behalf of farmers market) will organise the balloons. She will not be charged stall fees but will give a cut of the profits

Insurance certificates to be produced by all stall holders Teas and baking in the North Hall 2 - 4pm. 9 people on teas, 2 on the door.

Bottle stall organised

Raffle elicited a generous response with over 40 prizes.

Food stall, Polly's Coffee horse box in attendance

Funding

£1300 gathered thus far.

Ardrishaig Community Trust after some discussion had decided to forgo the hall hire costs and they have a greed to underwrite any loss incurred to the tune of £1500

Evening Dance

Evening tickets on sale in Ardrishaig.

Number clicker to be purchased to keep track of numbers present.

Linda & John Mullaney will be door monitors.

Arvertising

George Morris in charge of road signs and cones. Car park to be closed from 9pm Fri 18th Aug.

Notification of car park closure to be in the local paper.

Posters advertising the event to be distributed in local shops

Laminated A3 posters to all local shops

Parade

Anna Watkins sent email out to councillors to say car park will be officially opened and to any Council member wish to attend.

Jan Brown will do an opening speech

Trust to organise a podium for the Gala Queen etc